

INA FORSMAN ON TOUR 2020

Ina Forsman is an award winning Finnish singer and songwriter based in Berlin. With her powerful, expressive, honey burnt voice, she performs her selfwritten songs that intersect soul, blues, jazz and r&b. Her phrasing crisscrosses terrain that encompasses the influences of Etta James, Amy Winehouse, Joss Stone and Aretha Franklin. After winning 2013's Finnish Blues Challenge she was selected to represent her homeland at the European Blues Challenge in Riga, Latvia. Soon after that, she signed to Ruf Records, which issued her self-titled debut in 2016. The set's honey burnt cover of Nina Simone's "I Want a Little Sugar in My Bowl" landed on global streaming charts and public radio in the U.S. that same year. In 2016, Forsman toured the USA and Europe with Layla Zoe and Tasha Taylor. In 2018, She co-produced her 2019 sophomore solo offering "Been Meaning to Tell You", that landed top.5 on US Blues Chart top 100 on it`s releasing week. In the last few years Ina has performed in major festivals like PORI JAZZ FESTIVAL and RAUMA BLUES in Finland, ÅMÅLS BLUES FEST in Sweden, FREDRIKSHAVN BLUES FESTIVAL in Denmark, COGNAC BLUES PASSIONS and FESTIVAL L'ÉTÉ A PAU in France, DOHENY BLUES FESTIVAL in California USA, BAYFRONT BLUES FESTIVAL in Minnesota USA and more.

Ina's live shows are full of raw female energy and earthmoving vocals, moving through different dimensions and dynamics from Soul to Jazz and Blues. Her stage persona captivates you and puts you on a roller coaster of emotions leaving you no other option but to enjoy the ride. Seeing and hearing Ina Forsman`s live show will make you remember what good music feels like.

“Ina certified her status as an exciting talent.
Perfect start for a Saturday night in Pori!”

MIKKOMATTI ARO
ARTISTIC DIRECTOR - PORI JAZZ FESTIVAL

“There is true honesty, genuinity and great will from the Finnish singer- songwriter to show how much she cares about music and how much she gives all of herself in every different expressions of her unique music talent. A talent that through the years, will surely take Ina Forsman to be recognized worldwide as one of the most inspired and eclectic artists of this generation”

GIOVANNI PILATO – BLUEBIRD REVIEWS

“You might just run out and tell several friends that you heard one of the most amazing singers you have in some time”

JIM HYNES - GLIDE MAGAZINE

“Been Meaning To Tell You” will doubtless have many admires and rightly so. There` s always room for challenging imaginative song writing and vivacious vocals in the blues, while any cross genre work is always something to be championed”

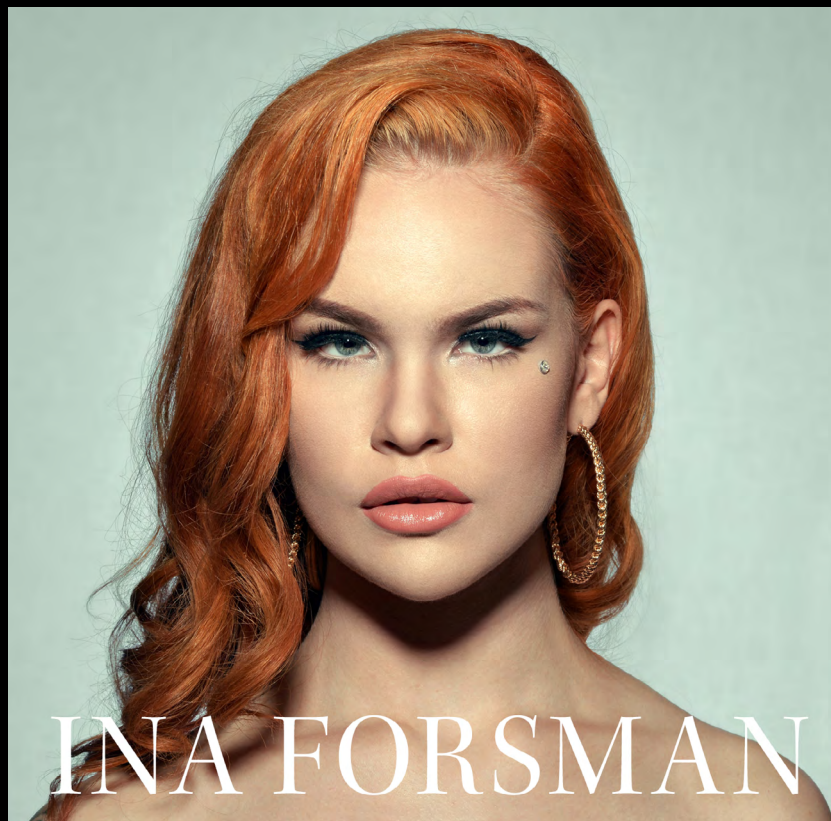

PETE FEENSTRA - GET READY TO ROCK BLOG

“This newcomer is powerful entertainment personified. One might not think of Finland as a source for hard earned, engaging r&b... But think again.”

BOBBY REED - DOWNBEAT REVIEWS
